

Providing Financial Clarity During the Divorce Process

IF YOU ARE GOING THROUGH, or planning to go through, a divorce, you already may be experiencing the emotional toll of the process. But a divorce also can have serious financial consequences if you don't understand, plan and protect your financial future with a well-thought-out settlement strategy.

At Tremont Financial Coaching (TFC), we assist our clients in making informed decisions about their current and future financial "health," to ensure their interests are well represented throughout the divorce process. We can help you develop a realistic view of your financial options as you transition to life after a divorce.

Our services include planning and forecasting the financial consequences of divorce. During what can be an emotionally challenging time, our Certified Divorce Financial Analyst professional, Kindra Walker, will, in a caring manner, help you catalog, assess and understand your finances. With this information, she will assist you in reviewing your options for an equitable financial settlement and plan for your short- and long-term financial needs and goals after the divorce.

To arrange a meeting with Kindra Walker, CDFA®, CPA, or for more information about how she can help you prepare financially for divorce, please call 484.224.2957, or email Kindra.Walker@TFCDivorceFinancialAnalyst.com.
